

Notes to the financial statements (continued)

25. New standards and interpretations not yet adopted (continued)

This new standard will most likely have a significant impact on the branch, which will include a possible change in the timing of when revenue is recognised and the amount of revenue recognised.

The standard is effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2017, with early adoption permitted under IFRS.